

Introduction to Intuitive Intelligence

Zanzi is a People Development Company delivering a range of client- led training, coaching and mentoring services since 2004.

Intuitive Intelligence is a range of tools and techniques that have been created in response to the huge changes and challenges we are all facing both personally and in business today.

The Intuitive Intelligence team brings together 50 years of experience encompassing standard corporate leadership and management, executive coaching, personal coaching, team development as well as including more creative, innovative aspects from quantum physics and ancient wisdom.

The team is Diana, Gina and Sandra.

Intuitive Intelligence is based on the limitless resource available to all , embracing elements from creativity to logic. We design, create and deliver bespoke programs such as:

- Intuitive Leadership
- Managing Change Intuitively
- Divining for Direction
- Mission Vision and Values
- Intuitive Coaching.

This exciting, fun and highly unique approach is relevant for the 21st Century and its emerging realities.

Based on client needs, our overall aims are to provide:

- Practical tools
- Sustainable learning knowledge and competence
- Emotional resilience

Which will ultimately lead to:

- Increased self trust
- Improved morale and motivation
- Fulfilling company aims and objectives
